REENTRY THROUGH THE ARTS

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

Reentry Through the Arts (RTA) supports arts and culture programs for adults who have served time in correctional institutions. Projects utilize arts and culture as part of a holistic approach to support adults who have been incarcerated to re-integrate into and contribute to their communities.

ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

- An applicant must be a California-based nonprofit organization or unit of government. Arts organizations as well social service organizations may be eligible to apply.
- Applicant may be either the arts partner or social service or community-based facility/agency, except for the following scenarios:
 - The applicant must be the arts partner if the partnership is composed of one arts organization and multiple facilities/agencies.
 - The applicant must be the social service partner if the partnership is composed of one facility/agency and an individual artist or artists.
 - This program is not designed for partnerships between multiple social service facilities/agencies and multiple arts organizations/groups of teaching artists.
